J. A. BROWN

Delivers Masterful Address, Quotes
Judge Hobson in Support of Bethurum.

Mr. Brown said many good things, and discussed many vital questions in his great speech at the court house here on the evening of May the 23rd. The Commonwealth will not publish all of Mr. Brown's speech, although it is all good, and rings with superb eloquence. Having traveled from his home in Wayne county to Somerset, in order to pay a deserved tribute to the worth and public service of Judge Bethurum, naturally he directed much of his speech to a discussion of Judge Bethurum's record as Circuit Judge of this judicial district, and to other matters bearing directly upon the qualification of the present Judge to serve the people again in that capacity. The Commonwealth employed a stenographer to report Mr. Brown's speech, and such of the speech as is published is given verbatim. He said in part:

"I had a conversation with Judge Hobson, Chief Justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, several years ago in regard to the record of Judge Bethurum. This conversation took place just immediately before Judge Bethurum entered the race for reelection six years ago. Judge Hobson had reviewed much of the work of our Judge which was taken from his courts to the court of appeals from time to time, and was familiar with the ability that was displayed by Judge Bethurum in the judgments appealed from, and I wanted to know the opinion of Judge Hobson upon this question. Hobson was a Democrat, and I knew that any opinion that he then expressed would be disinterested, and absolutely unbiased, or, at least, would not be flavored in favor of Judge Bethurum. I propounded this question to Judge Hobson: Judge Hobson, would you advise us to elect some other man as Circuit Judge in the place of Judge Bethurum? His answer was immediate, and he said: I don't know anything about Bethurum's opponent, or his qualifications. I am a Democrat, and am not interested in the race, and do not want to hurt any one's feelings; but I don't care who knows what I have to say in answer to your question. Judge Bethurum is one of the very best Circuit Judges in the State of Kentucky and the best Judge in the mountains."

"I had observed the conduct of Judge Bethurum upon the Circuit Court bench for six years, and I knew that his record was spotless, and that his ability was not questioned by the bar of the district, or any one else, but I was curious to know what the Court of Appeals thought of our distinguished jurist, and I learned that our stand at the very top in the estimation of the highest court in Kentucky. How much I was pleased and thrilled by the remarks of Judge Hobson, I am unable to express to you this evening. I considered it a tribute, not only to Judge Bethurum, but likewise a great tribute to the people who are responsible for Judge Bethurum's elevation to the bench in this district. Judge Bethurum's standing is good not only with the Judges of the Court of Appeals, but also with his fellow Circuit Judges of Kentucky. They recognized in him sterling worth, and ability of the first order, when they made him the President of the Circuit Judges' Association of Kentucky at their annual meeting in Louisville last December. After listening to the eulogy which Judge Hobson passed upon our Circuit Judge, I needed no further evidence of the ability of the man who sits in judgment upon the rights of all the people of this circuit district. I knew that our rights were secure in the hands of such an able and capable Judge. I am here tonight for the purpose of urging you people to help us retain that spotless and incorruptible jurist upon the bench of the 28th judicial district. He stands well at home, and he stands well abroad; he reflects honor upon the district that has honored him, and our people do not have to apologize for his position upon any question because he is pure at heart, and is a stalwart defender of right everywhere. I am proud to champion the cause of a man whose legal ability and learning is praised by the highest Judge in the land; a man who is big enough to win, and not lose, and is able to fill the office if elected, and big enough not to squeal and sulk, if defeated."

"Friends, I know well the two men who are candidates for Circuit Judge in this district. I was raised, and now live, in the county of the birth of Judge Bethurum's opponent, and I come to you, and with all my heart, appeal to you to reject the claims of my former neighbor, and ask you for the sake of this great district, and all the people who live here, to stand by Judge Bethurum, and to give us a Judge who knows the law, and administers it as it seems to be well pleased with his meth-with due regard to the rights of the people. Judge Bethurum, in addition to being a moral, sober man, a just and upright Judge, is a patriot, and during the late world war, did much to advance our cause, and help to win the war."

"He was to the front in every movement, responded to every requirement of duty, and no man did more, according to his means, to assist the government in crushing the autocratic power of Germany than did Judge Bethurum. He comes of patriotic stock. His father served with distinction four years during the conflict between the North and the South, and as a gallant Union soldier saw service upon nearly every great battlefield that tested and proved the worth of men in one of the fiercest and bloodiest military conflicts that the world ever saw. Judge Bethurum's son proudly marched to the front in the late world war, and as a true soldier and genuine patriot saw service upon many of the battlefields of Europe. He did not hesitate, nor shrink. He did not offer any excuse, but with the love of country burning in his heart, and inspired by a genuine devotion to the cause, he responded to the call of the country, and with Spartan courage remained in the thick of the battle until the closing hours of the greatest military struggle of all time. This boy, with the courage of a Caesar, went to the front. For seven weeks he faced the German army on the celebrated Hindenburg line, and there endured all the hardships, and faced a living, seething hell, that old glory might continue to wave as the proud emblem of liberty. He was willing to give his life in the cause that moved the Nation's soul, and in common with thousands of others of equal seal and patriotism, left home and loved ones, and never retraced his footsteps until Germany was forced to yield, and the power of the German Empire broken and crushed. The Bethurums never shrink a responsibility either in peace or war, and the people can make no mistake by continuing to trust them with position and power. The enemies of Judge Bethurum may slander him, and abuse him in the campaign now on. He will be misrepresented, and traduced no doubt, as that seems to be the order in trade of the opposition, but no amount of slander and misrepresentation will serve to drive his friends from him, and I predict that on the 6th day of August next, he will be nominated for the high office of Circuit Judge by an overwhelming majority. He deserves it, and the people will be just, and will give it."

—Commonwealth

AT ALBANY MONDAY

Judge B. J. Bethurum and Judge Wm. M. Catron both spoke at Albany last Monday in the interest of Judge Bethurum's nomination for Circuit Judge. They also spoke at Seventy-Six Monday night. The crowd at Albany was a record breaker and both speakers were given the closest attention throughout and all they said was enthusiastically received by those present, indicating beyond a doubt the firm hold Judge Bethurum has in Clinton county. Reports obtained from party leaders from every part of the county show clearly that Clinton county is strongly for Bethurum and that he will carry the county this time by a larger majority than he lost the county six years ago. The Republicans of Clinton are the real kind, and they not only know that Bethurum is in the same class with them, but also that he is a real Circuit Judge, the kind they have learned to know and to like. Those who have been false to the Republican party need not apply to Clinton Republicans for office. The crowd at Seventy-Six was exceedingly large, too many by far for the house, and there it was the same story, all for Bethurum. This is the first effort of Judge Catron in Clinton and he is pleasing his hearers in the fullest.

BIG CROWDS

Attend Speeches in County in Past Two Weeks. Bethurum and Others Speak.

During the past two weeks Judge Bethurum and others have been speaking throughout the county at evenings and the crowds have been unusually large and with the very best order and high enthusiasm for Bethurum and for his return to the Circuit Judge bench for another term. At many places it was evident that Bethurum would get almost every vote cast. He is enthusiastically received everywhere he appears and the voters are attentive to all he says regarding the race. The speeches made by him, and those accompanying him have been of a very high type and the people in general know the law, and administer it as it seems to be well pleased with his methods of campaigning. Judge Bethurum will not stoop so low as to enter into a mud slinging and dirty campaign, but will, as has been his policy all the time, continue his campaign on the highest plane, giving no attention to false charges. His policy is to tell the people why he should be honored at this time with the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge and unless some one else can give better reasons, Republicans should cast their vote for Bethurum and all other candidates who have been true to their party and can show the best reason why they should have the office.

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS.

Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.

Kennedy's Democratic Record IN PULASKI COUNTY

Everyone should be made acquainted with the conduct of Mr. H. C. Kennedy after his defeat six years ago in the race for Circuit Judge. He went to Monticello after the primary, and had Cress to meet him at the home of Kennedy's brother, John, and there they conferred one whole Sunday afternoon, and planned to defeat Judge Bethurum. They tried to carry out the plan, but failed, and the whole story of his deception and treachery will be fully exposed during the coming campaign for Circuit Judge. The same Kennedy following closely on the heels of his bolt in 1915 bolted and made speeches for the Democratic ticket in Pulaski county, in the year 1917. He will not attempt to deny this, as this is one time he openly fought a Republican ticket. In order that the minds of the voters may be refreshed on what he did that year, an editorial that was published in the Somerset Journal, the Democratic organ of Pulaski county, September 28, 1917, is herewith copied. It is as follows:

"The speaking at the court house last Saturday in behalf of the Democratic ticket by Judge Kennedy was well attended. In fact the Court house was overflowing, numbers leaving because they could not secure seats. The speeches of these gentlemen were to the point, sledge hammer blows were struck, a spade was called a spade, no one being left in the dark as to their attitude toward the Democratic ticket."

After speaking all over Pulaski county that year for the Democratic ticket, this same Kennedy went to Sloan's Valley, some 15 miles south of Somerset, on the day of the November election of that year, and acted as precinct worker for the Democratic ticket. He was seen there by Dr. Thomas Ralston and Mr. R. H. Halcomb, of Burnside, Ky., who tell the story of his conduct in the following statement:

"The undersigned state that they were on the election grounds at Sloan's Valley precinct, Pulaski county, at the general November election, 1917, at which general election the county officials were elected, and also the magistrates. They further state that H. C. Kennedy was present at the polls at said precinct in said election, was there as a precinct worker for the straight Democratic ticket, and worked for said ticket, and fought the Republicans till noon on said election day.

(Signed)
"Dr. Thomas Ralston,
"R. H. Halcomb."

In a letter written by the said Kennedy to a prominent Republican in Rockcastle county, Sept. 17th, 1920, he admitted that he bolted the Pulaski county Republican ticket in 1917, in the following language:

"What I did in Pulaski county in some of the local races in 1917, is no secret. When I go on the stump there will be no denial."

This same Kennedy on October 22nd, 1917, signed an article, and had copies of it published and scattered throughout Pulaski county appealing to the Republicans of the county to follow him into the Democratic party, and vote the straight Democratic ticket that year. A copy of this circular is in existence. It is too long to copy in full, but a portion of it is here copied for the information of the voters. It is as follows:

"In our opinion there is but one remedy for Pulaski county, and that is for a while to turn its affairs over to the Democrats. They have nominated some clean, honest, capable men for the county offices, and their election would mean the redemption of Pulaski county."

The voters responded to this appeal, but not to Kennedy's liking. They elected the straight Republican ticket from top to bottom, the majorities ranging anywhere from 239 to 2334, practically all the candidates that he fought winning by something like a thousand majority each.

Why?

Because she is a Republican and supported Harding; will do the book-keeping for Rockcastle in a true and correct manner; keep a nice clean office; give everybody a square deal; and make a report at the end of each year for the county so the people can see where their money is going.

Who is Mrs. Cooper? She is the wife of J. L. Cooper an ex-soldier of the Spanish American War. He was a volunteer, along in the war with Colonel Roosevelt and marched to the tune of "Hot Times". He was a Republican of the truest blue, also an Old Fellow in good standing until death, and a gentleman.

I have lived in Rockcastle 20 years. I held a first class certificate taught in the public schools and am well qualified to do the work in this office.

I pledge myself to work for you and to your advantage. If you will be so kind as to elect me, I am not lined up with anyone, but am running my own race. So please remember that Lewis Cooper, wife and family were and are Republicans.

Thanking the voters one and all for your support in the coming primary Aug. 6, 1921. I remain on the trail,

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Lelia May Cooper,

We note in the Pulaski Republican of June 10th, the statement that the Mt. Vernon Signal is owned by Judge B. J. Bethurum and some of his friends at Mt. Vernon and controlled by one of his friends as Editor.

This statement is incorrect. While we are proud to be called a friend of Judge Bethurum, the Mt. Vernon Signal is owned and controlled solely by Mrs. Annie E. Miller.

This paper is advocating Judge Bethurum's candidacy for Circuit Judge because we personally know, respect and admire him as a gentleman and as an officer. We stand for the best interest of our county, and believe that the interest of our county will be best served by his reelection.

Judge Bethurum has made us a conscientious, capable Circuit Judge, he belongs by birth to Rockcastle County, and has at heart the interest of our people; he is a true and loyal Republican, and we most respectfully insist that this paper has a perfect right to exercise the privilege of supporting him wholeheartedly and earnestly, which privilege we intend to exercise, regardless of Mr. Kennedy's criticism.

This MAN DREADED To See Night Come

Was So Restless He Couldn't Sleep and Daylight Was Always Welcome

"With the exception of a little milk, which comprised my diet for more than eight weeks, I could not eat anything," said Capt. George W. Womble, residing at 105 Jennings St., Knoxville, Tenn., a highly respected citizen of that city.

"I am now able," continued Capt. Womble, after taking two bottles of Tanlac to eat practically anything I had a bad form of stomach and intestinal trouble for a long time and for months my condition had been such that I feared agony I got so I could not eat the simplest food. I tried doctor after doctor and all of medicine but nothing that was prescribed for me seemed to do me any good. I had a terrible pain in my breast just over my heart and for weeks and weeks I got no relief.

"I finally got so nervous that I actually dreaded to see night come as I could not sleep and was always so restless that I would rejoice to see daylight come. I was also constipated all of the time. In fact, life seemed a burden and I was so miserable that I was almost on the verge of despair. Several of my neighbors told me about Tanlac and advised me to try it.

"I am personally acquainted with Mr. Dan M. Chambliss of the firm of Kuhlman & Chambliss, and when I told him of my condition and how I suffered he advised me to begin taking Tanlac without delay and that it had relieved hundreds of the best people in Knoxville. I have now taken two bottles of Tanlac and am giving up this testimonial in the hope that it may induce others to take it. Since taking this medicine I actually feel like I had been made all over again with the youth, energy, and ambition of a sixteen year old boy.

THE CLARK FAMILY

Is traceable through the history of Kentucky since many years before she was admitted as a State. Colonel George Rogers Clark came to Kentucky in 1775 to help establish some form of civilization. He returned to Virginia and in an appeal to the Legislature of that State, had the territory now the state of Kentucky cut from Fincastle Co. Va., in 1776, and in 1779 built the first permanent fort at the Falls of Ohio, where Louisville is located. During his life he was one of the most noted Indian fighters and reduced many British forts in the northwest. From the settlement at Louisville came one Wallace Clark and located on Brush Creek, in this county, where his son, Tait Clark was born, in 1827. This was when Rockcastle had been a county only 13 years. Tait Clark, who is well remembered, lived and died on Brush Creek. He married Celia Laswell, who died only last year at the home of her youngest son, Dave, who now lives at the old homestead on Brush Creek. The Clark family, like many others of this county, originally came from Virginia, and are related to George Rogers Clark, and to James Clark, who resided in Clark county and was elected Governor of the State in the year 1836. In the year 1830, when Uncle Tait Clark was 7 years old, the population of Mt. Vernon was 142, and in the year 1843 he cast his first vote. At that time there was less than 800 voters in this county. He voted the Republican ticket the first time its candidates appeared on the ballot and until his death in 1905 he voted and worked for the nominees of this party. The Clarks have stayed in this county; there are now 28 families of Clarks in this county, comprising more than 50 votes. They are loyal Republicans, have been good citizens, consistently paid their taxes, worked the roads, and been considered factors for good ever since the county has existed. They are the same family of Clarks who helped drive the Britons and savage Indians from our fair State and make it a safe place in which to live. The Clarks of this county have been content with a place to till the soil, work on the railroad or in the log woods. They have been true to their friends, and not vindictive toward any one with whom they chanced to disagree. They have very seldom asked for office; none of them has ever held a county office. They are a quiet unassuming family of people; there is no reason why any of them should have any bitter enemies in this county. Dave is asking for the Sheriff's office this year; people are convinced that it is Dave's time; he is running the race at the solicitation of more voters than any man who ever entered a race in this county. He is so strong in his home district that he will receive at least nine-tenths of all Republican votes cast there on August 6th. The people of this county believe in D. G. Clark. They know he is honest, courageous and well qualified to fill the office of Sheriff. The indications are he will carry every precinct in the county.

His deputies are very popular. No man can attack the record of J. W. Clark as a good citizen and honorable, law-abiding Christian gentleman. W. W. Anglin has been tried and found to be honorable, fair and a good Deputy Sheriff. He has courteously collected taxes, promptly served papers, and given general satisfaction in this position.

When these men take charge of the Sheriff's office, the masses of people will be satisfied that their business with this office will be promptly and rightly attended to.

When the votes are counted everybody will know

Have you tried the new 10c package? Dealers now carry both; 10 for 10c, 20 for 20c. It's toasted.

BULL-DOG DRUMMOND

The Adventures of A Demobilized Officer Who Found Peace Dull

by CYRIL McNEILE
"SAPPER"

Illustrations by IRWIN MYERS
Copyright by Geo H Doran Co

It was like the bloom of a smileless peach.

For a moment or two he stood staring after it, and then he walked across to his own car. With his mind still full of the interview, he drove slowly along. Presently, while every now and then he smiled grimly to himself. Was the whole thing an elaborate hoax? Somewhat deep down in his mind, he wondered whether it was a joke—whether, by some freak of fate, he had stumbled on one of those strange mysteries which up to date had remained as existing only in the realms of dime novels.

He turned into his room, and stood in front of the mantelpiece taking off his gloves. It was as he was about to lay them down on the table that an envelope caught his eye, addressed to him in an unknown handwriting. Mechanically he picked it up and opened it. Inside was a single half-sheet of newspaper, on which a few lines had been written in a small, neat hand.

"There are more things in heaven and earth, young man, than are capable of being dreamed of and of a desire for cutting steak and onions, and a desire for adventure. I thought that you possess both; and they are useful assets in the second faculty mentioned by the poet. In heaven, however, one never knows—especially with regard to the onions. Be careful."

Drummond stood motionless for a moment, with narrowed eyes. Then he leaned forward and pressed the bell.

"Who brought this note, James?" he said quietly, as his servant came into the room.

"A small boy, sir. Said it was to be sure and see you got it most particular." He unlocked a cupboard near the window and produced a tumbler.

"Whisky, sir, or cock-a-lie?"

"Whisky, I think, James." Hugh carefully rolled the sheet of paper and placed it in his pocket. And his face as he took the drink from his man would have left no doubt in an onlooker's mind as to why, in the past, he had earned the name of "Bull-Dog" Drummond.

CHAPTER II.

In Which He Journeys to Godalming and the Game Begins.

ONE.

"I almost think, James, that I could talk with another kidney." Drummond looked across the table at his servant, who was carefully arranging two or three dozen letters in front of him, and got a dozen in front of him today, and I require a large breakfast."

James Denny smiled the dexterity from a dish that was standing on an electric heater.

"Are you going too long, sir?"

"I don't know, James. It all depends on circumstances, which, when you come to think of it, is undoubtedly one of the most famous phrases in the English language. Is there anything in the world that doesn't depend on circumstances?"

"Will you be nothing, sir, or going by train?" asked James prosaically. Blatant arguments did not appeal to him.

"By car," answered Drummond. "By train and a foot-brush."

"You won't take evening clothes, sir?"

"No. I want my visit to appear unpremeditated, James, and if one goes about completely encased in hotel attire, while pretending to be merely out for the afternoon, people have doubts as to one's object."

James digested this great thought in silence.

"Will you be going far, sir?" he asked at length, pointing out a second cup of coffee.

"To Godalming. A charming spot. I believe, though I've never been there. I met yesterday at the Carlton lives at Godalming."

"Indeed, sir," murmured James non-committally.

"You d-d old blunderer," laughed Drummond. "You know you're taking to know all about it. I had a very long and interesting talk with her, and one of two things emerges quite clearly from our conversation. Either, James, I am a congenital idiot, and don't know enough to come in out of the rain; or we've hit the goods. That is what I propose to find out by my little excursion. Either our legs, my friend, are being pulled till they will never resume their normal shape; or that advertisement has succeeded beyond our wildest dreams."

"There are a lot more answers in this morning, sir," Denny made a movement toward the letters he had been sorting. "One from a lovely widow with two children."

"Lovely," cried Drummond. "How forward of her?" He glanced at the letter and smiled. "Are, James, and accuracy are essential in a secretary. The misgiving woman calls herself 'bony, not lovely.' She will remain so, as far as I am concerned, until the other matter is settled."

"Will it take long, sir, do you think?"

"To get it settled? Denny and I, a cigarette and a lemonade in his chair. Listen, James, and I will outline the case. The lady lives in a house called The Larches, in Godalming, with her husband. She is another house called 'The Larches,' owned by a gentleman of the name of Henry Larkington, a man, James, with a nasty face who was

For Torpid Liver

"Black Draught is, in my opinion, the best liver medicine on the market," states Mrs. R. H. White, of Keok, Okla. She continues: "I had a pain in my chest after eating—light, uncomfortable feeling—and this was very disagreeable and brought on headaches. I was constipated and knew it was indigestion and inactive liver. I began the use of Black-Draught, night and morning, and it sure is splendid and certainly gives relief."

Theodore's BLACK-DRAUGHT

For over seventy years this purely vegetable preparation has been found beneficial by thousands of persons suffering from effects of a torpid, or slow-acting liver. Indigestion, biliousness, colic, coated tongue, dizziness, constipation, bitter taste, sleeplessness, lack of energy, pain in back, putridness under the eyes—any or all of these symptoms often indicate that there is something the matter with your liver. You can't be too careful about the medicine you take. Be sure that the name, "Theodore's Black-Draught," is on the package. At all druggists.

A LETTER ABOUT ZELMA O'NEAL

Louisville, Ky.
June 12, 1921.

Dr. M. Pennington, Mt. Vernon, Ky.
Dear Doctor:

I am writing you to inform you as to the condition of your little patient, Zelma O'Neal. I am very glad indeed to report that Zelma is doing very nicely and I feel much encouraged in regard to her condition.

She is having practically no temperature, in fact her temperature has only reached 100 during the part of one day since May 20, 1921. Her cough is very much improved and is eating everything she can get her hands on and what is more important is getting away with it. Physical findings in her chest has improved materially. She has been allowed to walk about the porch every day for past week with no rising temperature and very little in pulse rate. Her weight last Thursday shows increase six and one half pounds.

I know that you will be pleased to hear a good report from her and we all trust that her improvement will continue and be permanent.

Be sure to come out to see us when you come to the city.

Very truly yours,
State Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

The above letter is explanatory. This is the little girl the churches of Rockcastle Co. are supporting.

Editor, Signal.

Perhaps some of the readers of the Signal might be interested in a letter from this stricken district. I was running a boarding house and my daughter-in-law, two small children, and myself left the building about thirty minutes before the water reached it. George, my son, remained in the house with three of the boarders, to carry some things to the second floor. By the time they had made the second trip the water rushed in so fast that it made escape dangerous, so they remained in the building all night. The water came within two inches of the second floor. When one big frame house hit ours without causing it to shake, George then felt safe. Three buildings bulged against ours. A lumber yard about two blocks above us caught fire, making it possible to not only hear the cries of the passing people but to see them in their distress. The front of our building went out, together with everything on the first floor. I lost two thirds of all I had, but our hearts are not aching because of the loss of some of our family, as so many others are. The papers cannot exaggerate this calamity. It is awful, simply awful.

Mrs. Charlotte Jarret, 2731 Cheyenne Avenue, Pueblo, Colorado.

Mrs. Jarret went to Colorado from Broadhead about sixteen years ago.

THE HOME OF THE SOUL

In olden times it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

WHY SUFFER FROM RHEUMATISM

Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism neither of which require any internal treatment? The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

AMERICAN SHIPS, FLYING THE STARS AND STRIPES

will carry you and your goods anywhere

Two and three generations ago, the Stars and Stripes were all over the world. Then they almost vanished from the seven seas. But today they are back again.

Big splendid steamers, American-owned and operated, carrying passengers and goods, are crowding their way into all foreign harbors with the Stars and Stripes proudly fluttering from their masts.

American exporters, importers, travelers—all can help by shipping and sailing under the Stars and Stripes.
